

Japan promotes solar energy storage

Japan's solar energy growth and mandatory installations are driving demand for energy storage, virtual power plants, and creating new revenue for battery makers.

At the Energy Storage Summit Asia 2024, held last month in Singapore and hosted by our publisher Solar Media, Eku Energy's APAC technical lead Nick Morley said that having started his career in clean energy ...

With renewable energy accounting for 38% of the national grid (up from 22% in 2020), the island nation faces mounting pressure to stabilize its power supply. But how exactly does energy storage fit into this puzzle?...

As global competition for the development of perovskite solar cells is intensifying, Japan needs to achieve public implementation of this technology as soon as possible before 2030, the target year of the ...

The government is also reforming its battery energy storage system (BESS) regulations, with batteries set to play an important role in maximizing renewable energy supply and avoiding grid constraints. We look at the ...

According to Japan's 6th Strategic Energy Plan, battery storage will be increased as a distributed source of electricity closer to end users and within microgrids. This new policy calls for an increase in ...

Solar power has become the largest source of clean energy in Japan this year. Interest among households has been strong, with more than 3mn residential solar systems installed last year....

Japan's energy storage policy is anchored by the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI), which outlined its ambitions in the 6th Strategic Energy Plan, adopted in 2021. The plan raises ...

Because Japan just dropped a 90 billion yen bombshell to boost home and commercial energy storage systems--and you don't want to miss the details [1]. Let's unpack how this subsidy works, who ...

In our view, a more coordinated approach at a national level, including a supportive policy and regulatory framework, will help to unlock more significant investment in energy storage in Japan.
