

Playing with the solar power scam

I'm sure it is a company selling solar power solutions, but it is very misleading, making it sound like something affiliated with PG& E or the PUC when it is not and I could see many people...

While you are browsing solar power companies, one of them may offer to install a solar panel or solar roof in your home for a small cost or even for free. It's an intentionally misleading...

No information about the cost to remove or transfer solar panels, which could lead you to believe you have future options that might not be available or affordable

A contraption he'd rigged up in his driveway--a car trailer decked with solar panels and a heavy battery--got the attention of people with real money. Carpoif could scarcely have imagined it.

While solar power promises a greener and more sustainable future, a shadowy menace has emerged within the industry - solar panel fraud. These deceptive practices not only undermine ...

According to data provided to the Observer, since 2018 the attorney general's office has received 172 complaints of solar-panel fraud that cite a Dallas County address, putting our area at the...

To avoid getting scammed, you need to know what to look out for and when to walk away. Here's our guide to spotting solar panel scams and finding a great installer.

Two guys showed up and were acting like they were from the local electric company, and wanting to give me free solar, to take the house off the grid and sell power back to the power company because ...

These scams start with an unexpected phone call, message on social, or even an in-person visit. The so-called official offers you an "energy audit" to reduce your utility costs. Or they might try to sign you ...

Learn how to spot solar panel fraud, avoid predatory contracts, and take action if you've been scammed, with guidance from Prevost Law Firm.

Playing with the solar power scam

Web: <https://www.klconsulting.co.za>

